DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, line 5, "the front or back" has no antecedence basis.

Claim 1, line 5, "the said PCB" should be changed to - - the PCB - -.

Claim 1, lines 12, 20 "embedded in" should be changed to - - receives - -.

Claim 1, line 15, "contacts" should be changed to - - contacts for connection to connectors and - -.

Claim 1, lines 23-28 are unclear.

Claim 1, line 4, "wire" should be trace or conductors.

Claim 2, "particularly refers to" terms are ambiguous.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Frias Vadero (U. S. Patent 6, 394,844) in view of Free (U. S. Patent 4,602,842).

Aft Unit: 2839

5. Regarding claim 1, Frias Vadero discloses an electrical connector assembly comprising a printed circuit board, 34 an I/O port 42 and a connector socket 4 configured in a jack frame wherein a plurality of beam contacts 66 for connection to conductor and corresponding to the connector terminals are arranged on a connector socket in a one-to-one manner and each connector terminal is respectively fixed in the connector socket, so each connector terminal is electrically insulated with each other, a slot is formed at the bottom of the connector socket. Frias Vadero discloses the claimed invention except for explicit disclosure of wires on the printed circuit board form a plurality of jackwire terminals and a plurality of spring plates in the I/O port corresponding to the jackwire terminals. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use wires as trace on printed circuit board as would be essential to provide electrical connection. Free discloses an I/O port with a plurality of spring plates. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Frias Vadero to provide the plurality of spring in the I/O port 42 as taught by Free so as to provide for easy assembly.

6. Regarding claim 2, Frias Vadero, see figure 7, discloses the connector socket having two connectors 62 in left and right symmetry.
